GUEST VISIT: ACTIVE PARTICIPATION IN MEDIA MINISTRY

On December 2, 2020, Pastor Shao Chenguang, a renowned Old Testament scholar, along with Pastor Su Wenlong, a professor at Logos Evangelical Theological Seminary, paid a visit to us. The staff members of Kairos warmly welcomed them and not only gave them a tour but also provided a detailed introduction to Kairos' media ministry. They also discussed the possibilities of collaborating in media ministry. We thank the Lord that on the same day, Pastor Su Wenlong participated in the program recording, and several weeks later, Pastor Shao Chenguang followed suit and joined us for a program recording as well. We kindly invite you to search for "Kairos Media" on YouTube, subscribe, and follow our channel to be the first to watch the exciting programs presented by these pastors.

"ENLIGHTENING HEARTS" INTRODUCES TWO NEW "FAITH AND PRACTICE" SERIES

In response to the exploration and needs of brothers and sisters regarding the "Faith and Practice" curriculum, "Enlightening Hearts" (WeChat Official Account) has launched two new series titled "Discussions on Mental Health and Well-being" and "Casual Talks on Discipleship." We are honored to have Pastor Chen Zhiping and Pastor/Dr. Chen Rongchao as the main speakers for these programs. Pastor Chen Zhiping graduated from Nanjing Union Theological Seminary and further pursued advanced studies at Fuller Theological Seminary in the United States. He has also obtained a professional license as a Los Angeles-based mental health counselor and therapist through specialized training. His lectures contribute to dispelling people's fears about mental health disorders, understanding the importance of mental health and well-being, and aiding us in caring for those in need in this area. Pastor Chen Rongchao holds a Doctor of Theology degree and, after many years of pastoral ministry, has retired and is currently devoted to theological research and teaching. He serves as a visiting professor at Divinity School of Chung Chi College, The Chinese University of Hong Kong. Both series of lectures are broadcasted every Sunday.
