The Kairos Forum

"The Kairos Forum" has completed its sixth lecture. From March to May, Professor Feng Shuxian, a clinical psychologist specializing in marriage and family therapy, individual mental health treatment, and child learning difficulties therapy, will be the main speaker. The first lecture on March 16th is titled "Pastoral Counseling Skills (Part 1): Active Listening." Besides Dr. Liu Ruomin, who hosts the forum from Germany, the backstage team also plays a crucial role, and we are grateful for their dedication. To accommodate those who cannot attend or wish to review the content, video replays are made available through the "Kairos Bulletin" email newsletter.

The Kairos Institute website also launched a new section called "Kairos Forum Replays," where you can find six recorded lecture videos from past events for your viewing pleasure. Additionally, the "Major Prophets" trilogy of the Bible study series is now available in audio, text, and video format, conveniently stored on USB drives for your use. These materials serve as excellent resources for group and individual Bible studies. If you are interested, please contact Kairos at kairos@kairos-usa.org.

"Marvelous Q&A" video series

Thank the Lord! After over a year of preparation, the "Marvelous Q&A" video series has started production for the Mandarin version. It is planned to have 10 episodes, each lasting about 10 minutes. The host will be presented as a cartoon character, making it lively and engaging. We are grateful to the Tian couple in St. Louis, who have volunteered to provide the voiceover work behind the scenes. We also thank the brothers and sisters in Christ for contributing questions related to faith.

In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven.

MATTHEW 5:16

God expects His people to bring good deeds into this generation, just like salt brings out its uniqueness and like light influences the world.
