Kairos Institute website

The word of God is spirit, and it is life. When we meditate on it and obey it, our lives are nourished and enriched. Kairos has a special online platform called "Kairos Institute" designed for Chinese-speaking Christians worldwide. It helps those who have a desire to deepen their understanding of the Bible but may not have the opportunity for full-time study. With this platform, they can systematically study the books of the Bible in their spare time. Over the years, many people have benefited from it.

Ministry Update

The "Book of Judges" Bible study series (21 episodes) is now entering the final production stage. Please pray for the needed manpower and resources. The short and impactful devotional testimonies series, "A Ray of Sunshine," has already produced and aired 114 episodes. Based on the audience's demand, there are plans to continue creating and presenting more episodes for everyone.

The "Four Gospels Trilogy Bible Study Series" has been completed. This product includes electronic books, audio books, and overview videos of the four Gospels, all stored in a USB drive, which can be used offline without the need for an internet connection. It is suitable for church small groups and individual Bible study.

The Mandarin program "Marvelous Q&A" is currently airing, and we are grateful for the responses from our brothers and sisters! Please pray for the production of the Cantonese version! The Cantonese series "Prayer and Peace" titled "Learning to Pray" has been well-received by the audience, with biblical characters as the main focus. We thank Pastor Ziseng Zhou and the production team for their contributions and service.

The Cantonese series of "The Bible Sounds Great" is currently broadcasting the book of "Amos," and after finishing the filming of "Proverbs" in June, the filming for "Ecclesiastes" has also been completed. Please pray for the post-production work. Following "Luke," the Cantonese series of "Reading the Bible Together" has started airing "Isaiah" in July. We kindly ask for your prayers and support.

But whose delight is in the law of the Lord, and who meditates on his law day and night.

PSALM 1:2

Kairos is planning to hold the 38th-anniversary celebration event on November 4 (Saturday) and November 5 (Sunday), with separate sessions for Mandarin and Cantonese. Please pray for the preparation of this celebration, and also set aside time to join us for the event.
